Harvest Cellar Assistant – Seasonal

About Helioterra Wines:

Helioterra Wines is a small, artisan producer of Northwest wines made at our winery in SE Portland, Oregon. Our wines are pretty, elegant and graceful in style. Winemaker Anne Ebenretier Hubatch partners with exceptional regional vineyard growers to craft wines that demonstrate the best that the Northwest offers.

We produce approx. 4,000 cases of premium wines from grapes sourced from reputable vineyards around OR and WA. Previous vintage experience working inside a winery is desired as is winemaking coursework. We are open to those desiring to further their wine education who work in the restaurant industry. Forklift experience preferred. Seasonal positions will last for approximately 6-8 weeks, generally from the mid-end of September into November. There is a potential for one seasonal employee to remain on as a cellar assistant.

Do you pay attention to details? Can you work harder and smarter than most? Are you a no-nonsense taking care of business personality type?
